PROMPT DECISIONS.
Learn to act promptly. In the affairs of this life a prompt decision is often more important than a right decision. One man makes up his mind and acts, it may be wrongly, but if so he finds out his mistake, corrects and retrieves it before another man has acted at all. It is possible to waste a great amount of time by thinking and still more by talking over actions. Learn to act promptly.

Preference.
"Does your daughter play Mozart?" we asked, displaying unusual attention. "I believe so," she replied deprecatingly, "but I think she prefers attention."—Philadelphia Ledger.

GERMANS DEFEND PEKIN MONARCHIST

Gen. Chao Hsuan.
Recent events have strengthened the belief that General Chao Hsuan, who led the monarchist forces in the recent attempt to overthrow the republican government of China, was employed by the German government. When his cause failed he fled to the Dutch legation and subsequently transferred his headquarters to the German barracks in that city.

DEATH TAKES AGED JANESVILLE WOMAN

Mrs. Reuben Winston, a Resident of Rock County for Seventy-five Years, Succumbs on Thursday.
Mrs. Reuben Winston passed away on Thursday, Aug. 23, at her home, 625 Milton avenue, at the ripe age of eighty-one years and seven months. Her illness was of short duration, but she suffered intensely during the last two weeks. She had been subject to heart trouble for some time and the end was inevitable.
Mrs. Winston was born on January 3, 1829, near Cleveland, O. She came to Rock county with her parents seventy-five years ago and remained a resident of the county during the remainder of her life. She was married to Reuben Winston in 1852 and was the mother of three children—Clara, who died at the age of thirteen; Mrs. George Butts of Janesville, and Mrs. J. J. King of Chicago. She is survived by these two daughters, by three grand-children, and by four great-grandchildren. Reuben Winston, her husband, died in Evansville, Ind., twenty-four years ago. She lived in Evansville for more than forty years and in Janesville for the last seventeen years.
She was domestic in her habits and fond of her home and her family. She lived a quiet, upright life and faced the future bravely and serenely. She was a true Christian woman and member of the Congregational church.
Her funeral will be at the home, 625 Milton avenue, at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, August 25th, and interment will be at Riverside in the family lot at Maple Hill cemetery.

EXTENSIVE REPAIRS ON TRINITY CHURCH

Interior Will Be Re-decorated, Exterior Painted and Other Alterations Made.
Extensive repairs and improvements planned for several years and much needed are now being made on Trinity church edifice. A hardwood floor has been laid in the nave or body of the church, the cover is to be repaired and covered, a new roof on church and chapel, the exterior of the buildings painted, the side vestibule doors to be closed and windows put in place of the new kneeling benches and the interior of the church to be re-decorated. The rector and vestry are issuing an appeal to all present members of the parish and also former members to contribute to help defray the expense of these improvements. It is hoped to have everything completed and paid for by the time of the seventh anniversary of the completion and consecration of the present building, which occurs in June, 1918.

LOCAL MEN PROMINENT AS FARM JOURNALISTS

Janesville people will be somewhat interested in the copy of the Country Gentleman for Aug. 11, as the young men well known in this city, who are in its columns, "Harvesting With a Tractor" by E. Roger Higgins is an interesting account of some experiments made by the author in the use of a tractor for farm work last season. Mr. Higgins is with the Melroe Plow company, in charge of their experimental work. The other article is entitled "Seed for 1918 Crop" written by Ned C. Helm, who has been for the last two years editor of the Seed World, published in Chicago. Both young men graduated from the local high school, and have many friends in the city.

OPENING OF CONTINUATION SCHOOL IS ALSO DELAYED

Included in the school affected by the recent decision to postpone the opening of the city schools until the seventeenth of September is the industrial or continuation school, the opening of which has also been delayed for two weeks. This announcement is of importance to all employers of children under sixteen years of age, who will not have to go back to school as soon as was formerly expected. Many people who have children in this class in their employ have made arrangements to let them go the fourth of the month, but will now be able to keep them for an additional period.

MILK SUPPLY REDUCED ONE-THIRD BY DROUGHT

The continued dry and hot weather has played havoc with the milk supply of the local milk dealers. The long hot spell has dried the cow pastures up so that the milk of the cows has suffered in consequence. The only relief in sight for the local dealers is a heavy downpour of rain, which will make the fields good pasture land for the cows. F. M. Marsh, manager of the local plant of the Kee and Chappel Dairy company, states that the dry weather has resulted in a decrease of one-third of their total average milk supply. The local dealers are optimistic that conditions will again resume their normal course.

Elgin, Aug. 18.—Butter, fifty tubs, sold at forty cents.

A Fortune in Snuffboxes.

Count Nesselrode, the Russian statesman of the last century, was a famous collector of snuffboxes. He collected them as a diplomatist, receiving one or two for each treaty he signed, and when he had got $100,000 worth of them turned them into cash and became a capitalist. His capital he invested so judiciously that his descendants are multimillionaires. The moral of Count Nesselrode's experience is that a snuffbox is not to be sneezed at.

Ten presidents of the United States have been elected twice—Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln, Grant, Cleveland, McKinley and Wilson.

AT LAKENON FROCK FOR MID-SUMMER

An afternoon frock for mid-summer and early fall that has no equal in the wardrobe is a rare feat of designing. This dress of a combination of georgette and satin with the new novel striped plush gives a decidedly pretty effect. The slanted tunic is something new and is fast becoming popular with the most stylish of young ladies. The waist and the slanted stripes on the skirt give an unusual contrast that is not found in many frocks.

BOY DIDN'T KNOW GUN WAS LOADED

Twelve Year Old Son of Constable Dulin Accidentally Shoots His Playmate.

"I did not know it was loaded," Young John Garrigan, aged twelve, son of John Garrigan, 208 South Pearl was accidentally shot by Charles Dulin, twelve years of age, son of Constable Dulin, 502 South St. while playing with a twenty-two caliber rifle belonging to the constable, in the home of Mr. Dulin. The bullet that was in the rifle was what is called "mustard seed" and is not very deadly. Young Garrigan was shot through the lower lip. The shot knocked out two of his teeth. Constable Dulin had been hunting with the gun about three weeks ago and had left the gun in his room thinking it was empty. At first there was a danger of Young Garrigan having lockjaw but Dr. McGuire, who has charge of the case, stated that this danger is past.

TAILORED SUIT FOR LARGE WOMAN

For the most part tailored suits have been things taboo for the large woman. They were all right for her slim sisters, but she was barred by her bulk. That has all been changed by a strictly tailored suit secure in the knowledge that it will make her appear slimmer instead of stouter. It is all a matter of scientific tailoring. If the suit be correctly, it according to the new scientific system of tailoring, that even the largest woman may wear, will be produced.

LOCAL W. C. T. U. IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Summarizes Work of Year in Aiding Dry Campaign and Elects Mrs. Anne Fris President.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Anne Fris, 17 North High street, Aug. 23, at 3:00 p. m., and was well represented by its membership, which at this time numbers thirty. The year's work done by the society was summarized by the reports of superintendents of departments and the officers. All showing good work done. Last fall just before election, it sent out 500 leaflets as campaign literature, urging the voters to vote for the prohibition of the liquor traffic. The society was also a large factor in the "dry campaign" by bringing in prominent temperance speakers and helping finance it. The temperance posters placed in different parts of the city were featured by the W. C. T. U. The flower mission work the society is doing for the needy and sick is one of the fine things that is a part of the work.

Other business was the election of officers. President, Mrs. Anne Fris; vice president, Mrs. O. H. Arfken; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary M. Palmer; recording secretary, Mrs. O. D. Bates; treasurer, Mrs. Amelia London. Three delegates and alternate were selected for the county convention to be held at Edgerton Aug. 29th and 30th.

The day of meeting was changed from the first and third Thursdays of the month by the vote of the society to accommodate a majority of the members.

The W. C. T. U. is one of the largest organizations of women in the world and every department, of which there are forty-six, is for the uplift of humanity, but its specific aim and work is the overthrow of the legalized liquor traffic.

JOSEPH M. CONNORS NAMED BY CLOTHIERS

Local Dealer Elected to the Board of Directors of the State Clothiers' Association at Milwaukee Meeting.

At the closing day of the Wisconsin Clothiers' association's convention held at the Hotel Pflister in Milwaukee, Joseph M. Connors of this city was elected a member of the board of directors. Mr. Connors was also named a delegate to the National Clothiers' association's annual meeting to be held in Chicago September 10th. About three hundred Wisconsin clothiers were present at the convention. William M. Spooner of Milwaukee, in a ringing patriotic address, denounced the German-American whose actions are hostile to the government and the cause of loyalty to President Wilson was passed following Mr. Spooner's address. The convention went in favor of keeping the prices as low as possible during the coming year despite the high prices of materials. W. B. Tyrell of Delavan, emphasized the necessity of sheep raising in Wisconsin if the present high prices of wool are to be reduced. The wool shortage is one of the most vital issues facing the people of this country today.

COURT POSTPONED TO ALLOW FARMERS TO HARVEST

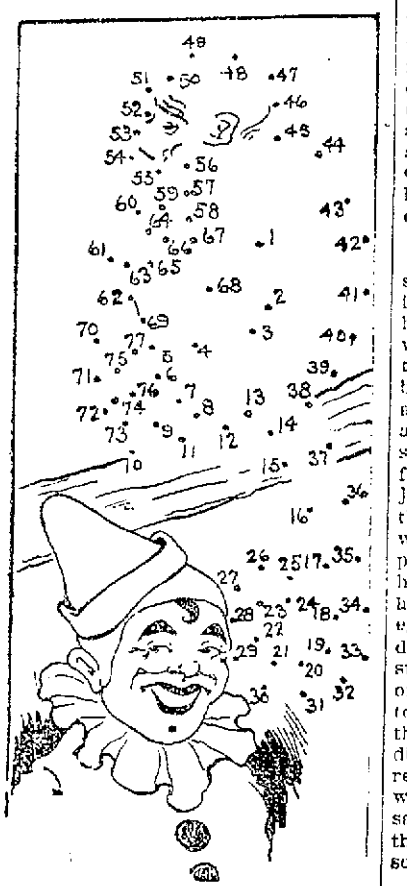

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Aug. 23.—W. B. Quinn, circuit judge, has postponed convention of court several weeks in order that farmers will not be taken from their "patronage work" on farms. Circuit court was postponed from Sept. 18 to Dec. 11, and the March county jury from October until Nov. 11. Many farmers complained it would have been a serious loss to them in harvest if they had been compelled to go into court at the earlier date.

The Message from Golgotha

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE
Of the Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—They crucified him, and the malefactor, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.—Luke 23:33.

Some time ago there was exhibited in the city of Chicago a large picture called "Golgotha."

It was a representation of the scene when Jesus and the two thieves were crucified. In the midst of the crowd and rising from the brow of the hill there were to be seen the three crosses upon which were the forms of those crucified. The wooden crosses have long since fallen into decay, but the messages given from them are still to be heard.

The Center Cross.

From the center cross there comes the message that provision has been made for the taking away of man's sin. This provision has been made by God alone. He needed no assistance from man. The prophet has said that it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he has put him to grief (Isaiah 53:10). Peter has declared that our Lord was delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God (Acts 2:23). And Paul has declared "God commendeth his love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). It will be seen that this provision has been made by God through sacrifice, for Jesus was the Lamb of God taking away the sin of the world (John 1:29). He was the fulfillment of the types of the Old Testament. The coat of skins wherewith Adam was clothed, the blood of the lamb which protected the people in Egypt on the Passover night, the offerings of blood of Leviticus, and all the slain beasts offered in sacrifice, point to the fundamental truth that "without the shedding of blood there is no remission" (Hebrews 9:22). Not only is this provision made by God alone and by sacrifice, but it is made by the sacrifice of a substitute. Long before Christ came, the prophet had declared that "he was to be wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities. All we like sheep have gone astray and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all" (Isaiah 53:6). And when at last that substitute came, Peter declared that he "his own self gave our sins in his own body on the tree" (1 Peter 2:24). This one upon the center cross is there in man's place, standing in man's stead, the substitute to whom is charged all of man's sin, the sacrifice, blotting out by his own blood, the iniquity of man. This one is God's provision for the taking away of man's transgression.

The Second Cross.

The second cross brings us a message of salvation received. It speaks to us first of all of a realization of the need for a substitute, and also conviction of sin. When the thief cried, "Lord remember me," he was voicing the plea of the publican, "God be merciful to me the sinner." This is one thing to have faith. It is one thing to have faith in the proper object. Faith alone saves us, but it is faith in Christ alone. One may have good faith in a bank, and yet lose his money, not because there was anything wrong with the faith, but because there was something wrong with the object of the faith. One may have good faith in many things and lose his soul, not because there is anything wrong with the faith, but because that faith has not been centered in the Lord Jesus Christ, who alone is God's provision for man's sin. This dying thief could not come down from the cross and go back over his record and undo the things which he had done. He could not make restitution; he could not blot out his record, nor was he given time to come from the cross and live a good and upright life, but if he were saved at all, he had to be saved by what Christ did and not by anything which he could do added to what Christ had done.

The Third Cross.

The message from the third cross speaks of the insanity of sin. There is a story told of a young man who had committed a crime for which he was tried and found guilty and sentenced to a penitentiary. After he had been placed in the prison, his mother, at the expense of a great deal of time and care, and with many tears, finally succeeded in securing for him pardon from the governor of the state. With joyous heart, feeling well repaid for the long weeks of ceaseless effort, she went to the penitentiary bearing the precious pardon which would liberate her boy. When at last she stood in his presence with tears of joy in her eyes, she handed to her boy his pardon. Instead of being grateful, and instead of accepting and making use of the pardon, the boy deliberately tore it into pieces, throwing it upon the floor, and stamped upon it with disdain. It is thus that the sinner who rejects God's proffered salvation treats what God has to offer. It is the insanity of sin leading on to suicide of the soul. All one has to do to commit soul suicide is to reject God's grace.
